Throwing for Beginners

Tuesdays 6-8 pm

This class is designed to provide more opportunities for learning to throw pottery. This class is kept small so that the students will get more individual attention. Skills such as centering, building up and finishing will be taught. Students must bring to class a pottery tool kit or purchase one from the Art Center for the class.

Registration fee $80 payable to City of Columbia.

Send Registration fee $80 with registration to the address below.
